

Schedules and Calendar

Schedules and Calendar

- General Academic Calendar for Master's and Doctoral Programmes at the University of Granada
- Academic and Administrative Deadlines Calendar for Master's Programmes
- Official Timetable of Master in Economics from the International School for Postgraduate Studies

The Master's programme is structured over three academic terms. Classes will begin on October 6, and they take place in room E22 and computer room 6 at School of Economics. The schedule is the following:

- Timetable for the 2025/2026 Academic Year - First Term.
- Timetable for the 2025/2026 Academic Year - Second Term
- Timetable for the 2025/2026 Academic Year - Third Term

The following courses are taught during the first term of the academic year: Microeconomics, Economics Analysis Techniques, Game Theory, Macroeconomics, Econometrics, Leadership with Emotional Intelligence, Technological Innovation Management, and Strategic Management.

The following courses are taught during the second term of the academic year: Research Methods in Microeconomics, International Economics, Political Competition and Decision Making, Research Methods in Macroeconomics, Dynamic Macroeconomics, Research Methods in Management, Quality Management, Flexibility and Strategic Change, and Research Methodology.

The following courses are taught during the third term of the academic year: Evaluation of Public Programmes and Policies, Behavioural Economics, Experimental Economics, Industrial Economics and Banking, Growth and Development Economics, Operations Management, and Information Systems Management.

The course Seminar runs throughout the entire academic year. Sessions for this course will be scheduled progressively, depending on the availability of guest lecturers. Students will be informed of each session in advance via email.

Examination Schedule

Ordinary Examination Session

- Exam Timetable for the First Term
- Exam Timetable for the Second Term
- Exam Timetable for the Third Term

Extraordinary Examination Session

- Exam Timetable for the Extraordinary Examination