Granada:

City, university & how to get around

Weather

Granada is very hot in August and the average temperature is expected to be 30 degrees or more. You should be prepared to bring light clothes. If you are fair skinned, do wear plenty of high-protection sunscreen when you are spending the day outdoors, as you are likely to get sunburnt between 11 AM and 6 PM.

Accommodation students

Summer School participants stay in students' residence San Bartolomé y Santiago. It is one of the oldest residences of the University of Granada, founded in 1649. It is a charming historical building situated in the city centre, and is close to bars, shopping zones, and also the Faculty of Science where NOISE classes will take place.

Website (in Spanish): <http://www.ugr.es/~cmss/>

Address:

Residence San Bartolomé y Santiago
Calle San Jerónimo 31
18001 Granada
Spain

Position in Google Maps:

http://maps.google.es/maps?f=q&source=s_q&hl=es&geocode=&q=Colegio+Mayor+San+Bartolome+Y+Santiago&sll=40.396764,-3.713379&sspn=7.562164,14.084473&ie=UTF8&hq=Colegio+Mayor+San+Bartolome+Y+Santiago&hnear=&ll=37.1798,-3.60122&spn=0.00365,0.006877&z=17

How to reach Bartolomé

From Granada bus station, take bus 3 or 33 and get off at the first stop in Gran Vía street (Triunfo/Instituto Padre Suarez). Go left towards the roundabout and turn left in San Juan de Dios street; than turn left in San Jeronimo street and after an approximately 2-minutes walk you will see the residence on your right. This will take approximately 10 minutes on foot altogether.

IMPORTANT: The airport coach (Coach Station = the bus station) that connects the city centre with Granada airport also stops at Triunfo/Instituto Padre Suarez stop.

Opening hours of residence Bartolomé

The residence will open on Friday August 13, 2010 at 12.30 PM and close on Sunday August 29 at 2 PM.

During the NOISE working days, the residence will be closed during the night from 3 AM until 7 AM. However, during the arrival days (August 15 and 16) and NOISE weekend days (August 21, 22 and 28) the residence will be open all night.

IMPORTANT: As you will be provided with an ID-card in order to enter the residence, please bring a passport photo.

Location NOISE Summer School

All lectures and tutor groups take place at the Geology Building of the Faculty of Science of the University of Granada.

Address: Campus Fuentenueva, Avenida Fuentenueva

When you stand in front of the side entrance to the Faculty of Science (from Gonzalo Gallas street), you will see the Geology building on your left hand. Go around the building and turn left to enter, and then you will find the classrooms on your left. All sessions take place on the ground floor of the building.

Getting around: walk, bus, taxi

The centre of Granada is small, but it can be confusing to find your way in a city that you don't know. Use your map and mark important sites: your room, the university buildings, the station, shops.

Bus

In Granada city centre you can easily reach most places on foot. However, you may consider taking a bus, for example, to go to the coach station (Estación de Autobuses) or to Alhambra. You can buy tickets directly from the bus driver as you get on the bus. A single bus fare is €1,20. If you plan to travel more by bus, you may consider buying a bus card (bonobus). The card costs €3,- and you charge it any amount which multiplies 5 euros. If you use the card, the fares are cheaper: you will pay at most 0,67 eurocents for a journey and you are entitled to change buses once during 40 minutes. The card is not personal and you can share it with other students.

The website of the bus company, Transportes Rober, is:

<http://www.transportesrober.com/>

Here, you can check the map of the bus lines (Plano de líneas). This map is also available at most bus stops and in your Granada city map.

IMPORTANT: Buses operate from approximately 7 AM till 11 PM.

Taxi

Taxis operate throughout Granada and are not expensive. Within the city centre, you shouldn't pay more than €5 to €7 for a trip. Night fares are slightly more expensive and there is a minimum fare of €4,17.

Coaches (= buses)

Travel by coach for short trips is more convenient than travelling by train. There are several daily buses to the coast and other Andalusian cities, and they depart from Estación de Autobuses (Avenida de Juan Pablo II). You can get there by urban buses number 3, 33 and 10. You can purchase coach tickets on the station or buy electronic tickets via the coach company's webpage <http://www.alsa.es> (available in English, German and French).

Emergency

In case of any emergency dial 112 (police, fire department, ambulance).

Police

The Police Station in the city centre is situated in Plaza de los Campos, 3, 18009 Granada.

Telephone: +34 - 958 808 502.

Also, you can call the Granada local police at 092.

Health emergencies

If you need a physician please contact the NOISE team first so we can see how we can help you.

If you are an EU citizen, and you are entitled to the European Health Insurance card, please obtain it and bring it along. With the card, you can go to any public medical practice and you will be helped.

The nearest public medical centre to the residence Bartolomé is:

- Centro de Salud Gran Capitán
Address: Gran Capitán, 10
Telephone: +34 - 958 022 600
Opening hours: Monday to Friday from 8 AM till 8 PM

If you are not an EU citizen or you are not entitled to the European Health Insurance card, please contact your insurance company on their coverage in Spain.

In case of life or health threatening emergency anyone in Andalucía will be helped in a hospital without charge. In such case call the health emergency telephone: 061 or 902505061 or go directly to the emergency unit in the hospital (Urgencias).

There are two hospitals with emergency units within walking distance from the residence (about 20 minutes):

- Hospital Universitario San Cecilio
Address: Avenida Dr. Olóriz 16
- Hospital Virgen de las Nieves (Ruiz de Alda)
Address: Avenida de las Fuerzas Armadas 2

The nearest pharmacy (Perpetuo Socorro) is 2 minutes from the residence, on the corner of San Jerónimo and San Juan de Dios streets. Also there are two other pharmacies in San Jerónimo street towards the cathedral.

Computers, Internet & Email

NOISE wi-fi access

NOISE Summer School participants will have a special login for the University's wireless network. This will work in residence Bartolomé, at all University buildings – including where the summer school takes place - and also in the hotel where the teachers will stay Carmen de la Victoria.

Username (usuario): noise@invitados.ugr.es

Password (contraseña): Ugr+NoISE-

In order to log on when you are in or near a University building, choose cviugr as your wireless network. Then go to any website through your browser. A login-page will appear where you should type the above mentioned username and password. These remain active from August 10 to August 30.

If you don't have your own laptop, you will be able to use the computer room at the Faculty of Science on NOISE teaching days (Tuesdays until Saturdays), 12.30 PM - 1.30 PM, room O7.

From August 23 you can use computers at the University's libraries. Most libraries will be open from 9.15 AM till 1.45 PM. The nearest are the library of the Faculty of Political Science and the library at Centro de Documentación Científica (where Institute for Women's Studies is located). See below for more information on the libraries.

Other computers and Internet access points

There are several Internet points in Granada. The nearest one is:

- Internet point in San Jerónimo 14 (open 8 AM till 10 PM)
Prize per hour: 1 euro per hour. There are discounts if you pay for 6 or 12 hours at once.

If you need to use Internet for less than 15 minutes, you can do it for free in Biblioteca de Andalucía. Address: Profesor Sainz Cantero 6. It is open from 8 AM till 8 PM on weekdays.

Granada University

The Universidad de Granada, founded in 1531, continues a long teaching tradition, the roots of which can be traced back to the madrasahs of the last Nasrid Kingdom. It is considered one of the best universities in Andalucía and in Spain and is an extremely important institution in the life of the city.

Facts & Figures

At present, courses for 75 different qualifications are taught in the 28 teaching centres of the UGR. The courses are taught across 116 departments. The Postgraduate School offers 68 master's courses, 116 doctorate programmes and 113 additional courses.

At present, 70,000 students are enrolled on accredited courses.

There are 346 research groups at the University. Through the Spanish Research Programme, as well as other national programmes and organisations, the University supports 165 research projects, and the Ministry of Innovation, Science and Business has provided financial support to 78 Projects of Excellence.

Campus

In Granada, there are four University Campuses, as well as the "Campus Centro", in which all the centres spread throughout the historic part of the city are brought together.

You can see all the University's buildings and campuses on this online map:

<http://www.ugr.es/~vicpie/web/mapa/index.htm>

NOISE Summer school teaching activities will take place in Campus Fuentenueva, in the Geology building.

Granada Gender Studies Programme

Instituto de Estudios de la Mujer (IEM; Institute for Women's Studies) is celebrating its 25th anniversary in 2010. It is one of the oldest women's studies academic centres in Spain and has a long tradition in research and teaching women's studies. Its head is Prof. Nuria Romo. The institute is also the coordinating institution of GEMMA (Erasmus Mundus Master's Degree in Women's and Gender Studies). The head of the programme is Prof. Adelina Sánchez Espinosa.

IEM is located in Rector Lopez Argueta street, on the third floor of the building Centro de Documentación Científica.

University opening times in August

The University has a two week summer closing between August 9 - 22. This means all the Faculties, libraries and facilities are closed and they open only for special activities such as NOISE. If you need a room to study, you can go to the Faculty of Science where NOISE classes will take place; there will be study rooms available from 9 AM to 2 PM.

Please note that Monday August 16 is a public holiday and most places are likely to be closed, and buses will operate on Sunday timetable.

Libraries

If you want to use a library during the first week of NOISE, you can go to:

- Biblioteca de Andalucía
Address: Profesor Sainz Cantero 6
Opening times: 8 AM – 8 PM, closed during the weekend

From August 23 the University re-opens in the morning (9 AM till 2 PM). All the Faculties will have their libraries open roughly from 9.15 AM till 1.45 PM. We especially recommend:

- Biblioteca de Centro de la Documentación Científica
Address: Rector Lopez Argueta, floor 1.
Opening times: 9.15 AM – 1.45 PM
This library holds most of the University's collection in women's studies.
- Biblioteca de Hospital Real
Address: Cuesta del Hospicio s/n
Opening times: 9 AM – 2 PM
It's the oldest library at the University.
- Biblioteca de la Facultad de Ciencias Politicas
Address: Rector Lopez Argueta, in the Faculty of Political Science building
Opening times: 9 AM – 2 PM

It holds some important works on women's studies and gender (mainly done from disciplines such as sociology and political studies)

Depending on your research interests, you can visit the libraries at other faculties. Most will open from 9.15 AM till 1.45 PM. You can check the available libraries and the catalogue at <http://biblioteca.ugr.es/pages/index?lang=en>

Shops

Most shops are open from 9 AM to 2 PM and then again from 5 PM to 9 PM. Some shops (like chain clothes stores such as Zara or Mango) don't close for lunch. During the summertime, some smaller shops may be open only in the morning. Supermarkets open usually from 9 AM to 9.30 PM and don't close for lunch. Shops and supermarkets close on Sunday. Clothes shopping zones are around the streets Mesones, Pontezuelas, and Recogidas.

Supermarkets

Bartolomé residence does not have a kitchen for the students to use. However, you'll be able to have cheap lunches thanks to tapas (check the chapter on food, drink and entertainment). If you want to buy food, the nearest supermarkets are:

- OpenCor (corner of Rector Lopez Argueta and Gran Capitan streets)
Good quality and open till late (and on Sunday) but expensive
- Mercadona
It is a cheap and good quality supermarket chain.

There are two supermarkets fairly near to the residence:

- Ancha de Capuchinos 11-13
- Camino de Ronda 43

These are also other small supermarkets (Coviran) near the residence, one up San Jerónimo street and another on Gran Capitán street.

Books

There are two fairly good bookstores near residence Bartolomé and they do have some books on women's studies, but unfortunately, most of their offer is in Spanish.

Librerías Babel

- San Juan de Díos 20
- Gran Capitán 4

Tourist information

Tourist reception offices

Here you will be able to download guides, maps and brochures on places of your interest.

Food, Drinks & Entertainment

Food & Drinks & Clubs

Granada has great variety of bars, pubs, discos and cafés. Local people spend plenty of time in bars and some places get very packed. We divided this section according to types of places to go out such as tapas bars, cafés, pubs and discos, providing you with useful details and names of some places. As far as tapas bars are concerned, you will find some more info also in the tourist information booklet "Granada de tapas". Smoking is permitted in almost all bars.

Tapas bars

In Granada you can eat out inexpensively thanks to the tapas custom. Tapa is a little portion of food you get for free when ordering a soft drink, beer or wine. Most people, young and old, meet with friends in bars to have a drink and a tapa. Granada is full of tapas bars and restaurants. Many restaurants have the bar where you stand and can eat tapas and tables reserved for customers that order dishes from the menu. In some bars you will be asked to choose your tapa from the list, in other you will simply be given a little portion of a different dish for each drink you order. If you are in the bar with a group of friends, everyone will usually get the same tapa, sometimes you can ask for 2 different types of tapas.

Opening hours

In Granada tapas bars open roughly from 1 PM till 4.30 PM and again from 8 PM to 1 PM. Some bars are open between 4.30 PM and 8 PM for coffee but then usually the kitchen is closed. Some bars close on Monday.

What to order

Soft drinks in a bar cost about €2,- Beers are usually served in two sizes: caña (smaller) and tubo (larger) and the price ranges from €1,50 to €2,50. A local beer brand is Alhambra. A glass of wine is €2,- or €3,- depending on the wine. If you order white wine you usually will be given dry white wine, you should specifically asked for semi-sweet white wine if you like that (semi dulce). Spain has some great red wines (vino tinto). Most bars serve wines from two regions: Rioja (a bit stronger flavour) and Ribera del Duero (milder).

Some people like also other drinks such as tinto de verano (red wine mixed with soda served on ice, great and refreshing) or clara (beer mixed with soda or lemon soda). These also cost around €1,50 or €2,50; depending on the place.

Vegetarians

Most bars have vegetarian meals and tapas but they are not usually marked as such, you should read the menu or ask the waiter for vegetarian tapa or dish.

Recommendations

- Bodega la Mancha, Joaquín Costa 10 (city centre)
A typical tapas bar near residence Bartolomé. Offers homemade vermouth.
- Saint Germain, Postigo Velutti, 4 (city centre)
Another small and pleasant tapas bar near the residence.
- Real Asador de Castilla, Escudo del Carmen 17 (city centre)
Not very cheap, but offers excellent quality tapas and meat and seafood dishes.

- Taberna el Mentidero, Piedra Santa 15 (city centre)
A small trendy bar with nice food, gets packed quickly. Closed on Saturdays.
- La Pajuana, Rosario 12 (city centre)
<http://www.lapajuana.com>
A nice modern tapas bar, with creative and large tapas, good option to meet friends.
- Patio Braserito, Rosario 7 (city centre)
<http://www.braserito.com>
A typical family bar and restaurant, very popular with local people.
- Loft Café, San Antón 6 (city centre)
<http://www.loft-cafe.com>
A posh and trendy tapas bar and restaurant, delicious tapas.
- Tree Sonoro, Mulhacén 24 (city centre)
<http://www.treesonoro.com>
A newly opened small tapas bar, delicious and creative tapas. Very friendly service and wide range of vegetarian and healthy dishes and tapas. Highly recommended.

IMPORTANT: You can exchange a green card you will find among your information materials for a free beer or a tinto de verano at Tree Sonoro.

- Bar Candela, Panaderas 9 (Realejo)
A small bar popular with students, serves small sandwiches with local charcuterie and cheese as tapas.
- Cisco y Tierra, Lepanto 2 (city centre)
A small lovely bar behind the city hall, has a really special atmosphere. Highly recommended.
- La Bella y la Bestia, Carrera del Darro 37 (city centre)
A tapas bar popular with students, serves huge tapas.
- Cervecería Dnieper, Plaza Einstein (city centre)
An Argentinean beer house with a pleasant terrace, popular with students, big tapas.
- Los Mascarones, Páges 18 (Albaicín)
A small family bar in the district of Albaizin, delicious food.

Cafés and tea houses

There are plenty of cafés in Granada, while some are exclusively coffee houses, other also serve beers and tapas.

Opening hours

Cafés mostly open early in the morning, around 8 AM and are usually open all day till 8 PM. The peak hour is around 11 AM when everyone has breakfast.

What to order

It's very common for local people to have breakfast in a café. A typical breakfast consists of coffee and toasted bun with tomato pulp and olive oil, or with butter and/or jam. In most places you can have a ham and cheese toasted croissant or a sweet bun as well. In the afternoon, you can have coffee with little sweet cakes (pastels); you should try typical piononos from Granada.

Another must is a visit to one of the teterías, Arabic tea houses. They are plenty of tea houses situated in Calderería Nueva street, in the city centre. They offer teas, Arabic sweets and crepes, and also water pipes.

Recommendations

- La Calá, San Juan de Dios 52
Small Italian café near the residence, great coffee, toasts and waffles.
- Huerto de Juan Ranas, Callejon de Atarazana 8/Mirador de San Nicolas
This is a restaurant in the Albaicín district which offers impressive views of Alhambra, especially during the sunset. Expensive, but it's well worth to have a coffee there sitting on their comfortable sofas and watching the views.
- Gran Vía de Colón, corner of Gran Vía and Carcel Baja
It's a tapas bar, restaurant and a café, great coffee and nice cakes.
- Pastelería López Mezquita, Reyes Católicos, 39
A bakery that serves delicious cakes, also to take away.
- Puerta Real, corner of Reyes Católicos in front of Plaza del Carmen (City hall)
In this building there is a bar-café on the ground floor, and restaurant on the first floor. It's a nice place to rest when you are shopping in the city centre.

IMPORTANT: Puerta Real has offered NOISE discount menus for breakfast, lunch and dinner. We recommend the lunch and dinner offers as relatively cheap. See the leaflet in your information materials.

- Café Picaro, Varela 10
This café-pub has nice atmosphere, low music allows conversation, and sometimes there are concerts.
- Tetería Alfaguarrda, Calderería Nueva 7
A famous tea house which also offers Arabic food.

Restaurants and other places for lunch

There are lots of restaurants and take-aways in Granada. It is very common in a restaurant when you are with a group of friends to order some dishes from the menu (raciones) and share them. Remember that when you are seated in a restaurant you won't probably get any tapas. We suggest some cheap and good lunch places, if you would like to go to a more trendy and more expensive restaurant, please ask the head tutor for recommendation.

Recommendations

- El Piano, Gran Capitán 7
<http://www.el-piano.com/>
Lovely venue that serves inexpensive take-away vegetarian lunches near the residence. The owner is English. Highly recommended!
- Hola Pizzametro, Gran Capitán 21
A fairly cheap and very good quality pizzeria near the residence, the pizzas are huge. Also other Italian dishes and take away.
- Viva María, San Jerónimo 10
An Italian take-away, delicious and homemade dishes (the cook is also the owner, everything is cooked on the premises) and some vegetarian meals.

- Kirin, Parranga 9
A good quality Japanese restaurant in the city centre. Variety of Japanese dishes, medium prices. Also offers menus.
- Botánico, Málaga 3
This restaurant and café is popular with students, it offers daily fairly inexpensive menus.
- Sancho, Tablas 16
This fairly cheap bar and restaurant offers nice food, Spanish classics with a twist. Offers daily menus.
- Kebab King, Molinos 13
It has the best kebab in town, delicious and inexpensive.
- Gayedra, Tendillas de Santa Paula 6
<http://www.gayedra.com/>
A gay friendly restaurant which offers delicious modern cuisine, quite expensive but offers a cheaper daily menu.
- Los Italianos, Gran Via 4
The best ice-cream in Granada, really crowded in the weekends.

Pubs and discos

Opening hours

The pubs usually open around 5 PM and are open till 3 or 4 AM in the morning. The discos open at 3 AM in the morning and close at 6 or 7 AM in the morning.

What to order

In a pub you can have a coffee (in the afternoon), a soft drink, or bottled beer (except few Irish pubs that serve beers from the tap). The pubs don't usually serve wines. What locals usually have in pubs and discos, especially in the evening and at night, are copas, alcoholic drinks that combine dark rum, whiskey, or vodka with a soft drink, especially Coke, Fanta or Sprite. The most popular dark rum brands are Barceló, Brugal and Cacique. Some bars offer also cocktails, such as Mojito, Caipiriña etc. Drinks and cocktails cost around €5,- to €7,-. Most pubs do not serve wine, and if they do, it won't probably be of high quality.

Recommendations

- Mojitoo Bar, Navas 18
One of the best cocktail bars in Granada, offers great cocktails and a very nice atmosphere, it also has a small terrace. It sometimes gets very crowded during the weekends. Check the happy hour, on weekdays from 9 PM to 10 PM, you get 2 mojitos for a price of one.
- Ganivet Plaza, Plaza Ganivet
Two-floor typical Spanish pub, Spanish music, loud and crowded but nice. The upstairs part tends to be calmer.
- Rembrandt (Centro Comercial Neptuno, the rear part)
Elegant and modern pub, gets crowded during the weekends.
- La Percha, Trajano 1
<http://www.myspace.com/laperchapub>
An absolute must! A small alternative pub which celebrates the 80s, sometimes there are concerts and events.

- Café Aliatar, Recogidas (at the beginning of the street, entrance on both sides of Blanco clothes shop)
A posh trendy hotspot, a cinema turned into a pub. A bit more expensive, but definitely a must.
- Terraza Forum, Circunvalación
A newly opened outdoor pub on top of Caja Rural bank building. Lovely views of the city. Not exactly in the city centre but worth visiting (it's near Memoria de Andalucía Museum).
- Mae West, Centro Comercial Neptuno
One of the most famous and crowded discos in Granada, with 3 rooms, very crowded on Saturdays but nice on Sundays. Closed shoes and long trousers for men necessary. Entrance on Fridays and Saturdays 10 euros with 1 drink included.
- Metro, Calle de los Freiles 5
A disco in the city centre, pop and commercial house music.
- Vogue, Calle Duquesa
A disco that plays different music (pop, rock, electro and alternative). Relaxed atmosphere, mainly young people.
- Camborio, Camino de Sacromonte 47
A disco in a cave, different rooms with different types of music, lovely views of Alhambra, quite far from the city centre, it is recommended to go by taxi.

PINK Granada: Gay & Lesbian bars/clubs

Pubs

- Six Colours, Tendillas de Santa Paula 6
Small bar in the centre, mainly guys.
- Fondo Reservado, Cuesta Santa Inés 13
Lively mixed bar off Paseo de los Tristes

Discos

- Zoo, Moras 2
A loud disco with house music, guys and girls.

Theatres

Most theatres in Granada close in August. An interesting summer event is a theatre festival at Corral de Carbón, organised by Teatro Garcia Lorca, with comedies played daily from August 16 to 30.

More info at: [http://www.granadatur.com/en/culture/upcoming-events/evento/los-veranos-del-corral/20100816/?tx_cal_controller\[lastview\]=view-day|page_id-431&cHash=088ba95461a04a490d214e81fdd21013](http://www.granadatur.com/en/culture/upcoming-events/evento/los-veranos-del-corral/20100816/?tx_cal_controller[lastview]=view-day|page_id-431&cHash=088ba95461a04a490d214e81fdd21013)

Cinemas

There are two cinemas in the city centre:

- Multicines, Solarillo de Gracia 9

- Cinema Andalucía 2000, Centro Comercial Neptuno

IMPORTANT: All films are dubbed in Spanish. Please check timetable and prices at http://www.granada.net/cartelera_home.html

Places to visit

The most important tourist attractions of Granada are:

The Cathedral

The Cathedral of Granada was constructed by Queen Isabel after conquering Granada over the largest mosque that existed in the city. Its construction started in 1523. The Catholic Kings are buried in the Royal Chapel of the Cathedral, which you can also visit.

Address:

Gran Vía de Colón 5

Telephone: +34 – 958 222 959

Opening hours in August:

Monday to Saturday: 10.45 AM to 1.30 PM and 4 PM to 8 PM

Sundays and public holidays: 4 PM to 8 PM

Ticket: €3,50

Alhambra and Generalife

World Heritage Site, the complex of the Alhambra and the Generalife is the most emblematic, known and visited monument of Granada. City, fortress and palace of the kings of the Nasrid dynasty, its rooms and gardens are the higher expression of the Muslim art in Europe. The castle considered by some one of the miracles of the modern world.

You can book tickets for your visit in Alhambra in advance through the following webpage:

http://www.servicaixa.com/nav/landings/es/mucho_mas/alhambra/alhambra.html?CODIUSU=P055AL07 As you arrive in Spain, you can collect your tickets in any La CAIXA bank ATM or in yellow machines in Alhambra complex.

Alhambra NOISE Special

NOISE has reserved 3 guided tours to the Alhambra for the students. These guided tours will take place on Monday August 23 (starting 11 AM and 5 PM) and one evening tour on Thursday August 26 (start 10 PM). The NOISE Coordination has made an overview of who's in which group.

There's a possibility for an extra evening tour (guided or unguided) on Tuesday August 24 (start 10 PM) for students that didn't register yet.

The price of the ticket is €12,- per person (50% special NOISE-discount on a regular ticket plus €6,- per person to cover the guide). Ana, the English speaking guide is trained in gender studies and she will be able to show you parts of the castle normally unavailable to the public.

The groups should not exceed 20 people.

IMPORTANT: You can enter some parts of the complex for free, for example the Carlos V palace, which holds the Museum of Fine Arts (<http://www.juntadeandalucia.es/cultura/museos/MBAGR/>).

Extract from price list

- Regular daytime visit: €12,- (unguided)
- Evening or Night time visit: €12,-

- Garden visit (Generalife): €6,-
- Temporary exhibition ticket: €3,
- EU students under 30 with valid ID: €9,- The students must show Youth ID, 30 card or similar.

How to get there

You can either walk from Plaza Nueva (shorter) or through the Realejo district, or take bus number 30 or 32 in Gran Vía (next to the Cathedral).

IMPORTANT: You can walk up the hill Alhambra is on, but it's quite exhausting, especially during daytime, when the sun is shining.

Albaízin and Sacromonte

The Albaicín (World Heritage Site) and the Sacromonte are two of the districts with most colour, enchantment and history of the city of Granada. Albaicín is famous for its cármenes (typical houses) and a labyrinth of narrow streets. You admire Alhambra from the viewpoints of San Nicholas and San Cristóbal. As far as food is concerned, try snails (caracoles). The Sacromonte neighbourhood is famous by its caves, in which the gypsies continue celebrating every night their flamenco songs and dance celebrations. What is also worth seeing in Albaízin and Sacromonte are flamenco shows.

How to get there

Take bus 31 or 32 from Gran Vía (next to the Cathedral) or walk from Plaza Nueva along the river Darro. If you want to walk to the viewpoint (mirador) San Nicholas, you must be prepared to climb.

NOISE special flamenco

NOISE has booked an interactive flamenco concert for NOISE students at Carmen de las Cuevas (Cuesta de los Chinos 15). The concert will take place on Friday August 20 (7.45 PM - 9.15 PM), and will consist in teaching the history of flamenco, basic flamenco notions and then practicing together with the artists. The concert will be translated into English. The maximum number of participants is 40. The price per person for a group of larger than 15 people is €15,- The NOISE Coordination has an overview of the students that registered.

Park of the Sciences

It's a big complex of interactive museums at Avenida de la Ciencia, which are mainly focused on natural sciences. Nearby, you can visit Memoria de Andalucía museum, a modern museum focused on the historic memory of Granada and the Andalusian region.

NOISE special Museo Memoria de Andalucía

NOISE students will have a guided tour at Memoria de Andalucía museum on Wednesday August 18 (5 PM - 6.30 PM), as a complementary activity to Dr. Andrea Petó's class the same morning. The entrance ticket cost €3,- per person.

Beaches

It takes about 60 minutes by coach/bus to get to the nearest beach from Granada coach station. Coaches leave for the coast every hour approximately. The first beach town is Salobreña (ticket one way €5,78, return ticket €10,45), which is a small family beach with an Arabic castle. Almuñecar, the next beach town is around 20 minutes further (one way €7,24 return ticket €14,47), has more bars and activities. Both beaches are stony. A nice sandy beach is Nerja (the one-way journey takes 2 hours and the ticket costs €9,26 one way and €16,71 return). For nice sandy beaches that are located further, as well for car rental companies; contact the head tutor at: agatai@correo.ugr.es

Alpujarra

Located between Sierra Nevada and the Mediterranean Sea, it is an almost virgin mountain region, ideal for the rural tourism and the practice of adventure sports. The recommended towns to see are Lanjarón, Trevélez, Campaneía, Bubión or Pampaneira. There are 3 daily coaches to Trevélez, the one way journey takes about 3 hours and costs €6,87 one way and €12,41 return)

Sports

On a hot summer day, you will certainly enjoy a swim in an outdoor swimming pool. The university outdoor pool is situated at the end of Los Paseillos (officially called Profesor Juan Osorio street, Fuentenueva campus). The swimming pool opening times are Monday to Friday from 11 AM till 6.30 PM. The price of a daily ticket is €5,-

Summer School Day-to-Day Schedule

On the next pages you'll find a compact overview of the Summer School programme. We'll help you find your way as much as we can but try to use your map as well. Also included are some cultural/social activities that we have planned for you.

The summer school takes place at the Geology Building of the Faculty of Science of the University of Granada.

Address: Campus Fuentenueva, Avenida Fuentenueva

When you stand in front of the side entrance to the Faculty of Science (from Gonzalo Gallas street), you will see the Geology building on your left hand. Go around the building and turn left to enter, and then you will find the classrooms on your left. All sessions take place on the ground floor of the building.

The plenary sessions in the morning (09.30 AM - 12.30 PM) and the afternoon (5.30 PM – 6.30 PM) are in room G1.

The tutor groups (3.30 PM – 5.30 PM) will take place in rooms G3, G4, G5, G6, G7 and G8.
