COMPETENCIAS

COMPETENCIAS BÁSICAS

- CB6 - Poseer y comprender conocimientos que aporten una base u oportunidad de ser originales en desarrollo y/o aplicación de ideas, a menudo en un contexto de investigación.
- CB7 - Que los estudiantes sepan aplicar los conocimientos adquiridos y su capacidad de resolución de problemas en entornos nuevos o poco conocidos dentro de contextos más amplios (o multidisciplinares) relacionados con su área de estudio.
- CB8 - Que los estudiantes sean capaces de integrar conocimientos y enfrentarse a la complejidad de formular juicios a partir de una información que, siendo incompleta o limitada, incluya reflexiones sobre las responsabilidades sociales y éticas vinculadas a la aplicación de sus conocimientos y juicios.
- CB9 - Que los estudiantes sepan comunicar sus conclusiones y los conocimientos y razones últimas que las sustentan a públicos especializados y no especializados de un modo claro y sin ambigüedades.
- CB10 - Que los estudiantes posean las habilidades de aprendizaje que les permitan continuar estudiando de un modo que habrá de ser en gran medida autodirigido o autónomo.

COMPETENCIAS GENERALES

- CG01 - Desarrollar habilidades en las relaciones interpersonales y la mediación interlingüística.
- CG02 - Adquirir las habilidades de aprendizaje que les permitan continuar estudiando de un modo que habrá de ser en gran medida autodirigido o autónomo
- CG03 - Buscar información (oral, impresa, audiovisual, digital, multimedia) y transformarla en conocimiento.
- CG04 - Utilizar las nuevas tecnologías como herramienta de aprendizaje e investigación, así como medio de comunicación y difusión.
- CG05 - Comprender textos largos y complejos de cualquier tipo, tanto técnico, como narrativo, o literario.
- CG06 - Presentar, en diferentes formatos (escritos, orales, digitales) descripciones claras y detalladas de temas complejos, desarrollando ideas concretas y terminando con una conclusión apropiada.

COMPETENCIAS ESPECÍFICAS

- CE01 - Conocer y valorar de forma crítica las teorías, los métodos y los resultados actuales más extendidos de la investigación en el campo de las literaturas en lengua inglesa y de la lingüística inglesa.
- CE02 - Identificar casos de estudio y los diferentes acercamientos epistemológicos disponibles para elaborar y defender argumentos, así como resolver problemas dentro del área de estudio de las literaturas en lengua inglesa y la lingüística inglesa.
- CE03 - Diseñar y llevar a cabo proyectos de investigación, y plasmar sus resultados en ensayos críticos siguiendo las convenciones formales del sistema MLA, con un marco epistemológico claro, riguroso y bien estructurado, con una introducción, desarrollo del análisis y conclusiones finales.
- CE05 - Entender los textos primarios y la bibliografía secundaria en los diferentes ámbitos y en los diferentes períodos de la historia de las literaturas en inglés como concreción de prácticas culturales y políticas en un contexto histórico determinado.

- CE07 - Conocer los diferentes acercamientos interdisciplinares al estudio de las literaturas en lengua inglesa, con especial énfasis en los estudios de género, las políticas de identidad, el discurso político, o los estudios postcoloniales y de traducción.

COMPETENCIAS TRANSVERSALES

- CT01 - La formación en el respeto a los derechos fundamentales y de igualdad entre hombres y mujeres, de los Derechos Humanos y los principios de accesibilidad universal, y los valores propios de una cultura de paz y de valores democráticos, según lo establecido por el Real Decreto 1393/2007, de 29 de octubre, Artº 3.5.

RESULTADOS DE APRENDIZAJE (Objetivos)

- To acquire the necessary skills to develop a thorough comparative analysis between written and filmed texts within the framework of adaptation studies.
- To learn about the main theories and approaches to adaptation, and apply such knowledge critically to the analysis of specific texts.
- To examine critically a variety of adapted texts from classics to popular culture texts including novels, short stories, graphic novels and non fiction.

PROGRAMA DE CONTENIDOS TEÓRICOS Y PRÁCTICOS

TEÓRICO

Course description

This course addresses the comparison between written and filmed narratives considering the convergences and divergences in the modes of storytelling. After establishing a framework for the study of literature and film, a survey will be made of the various approaches to the study of adaptation ranging from classics such as Bluestone (1956) and McFarlane (1996) to recent developments such as Stam (2000) and Hutzcheon (2006). A wide range of source texts including literary and popular narratives, short stories, graphic novels and comics will provide the testing ground for theories and approaches with a focus on the problem-solving nature of film adaptation. The course sessions will cover:

1. The phenomenon of film adaptation: origins, types and theories.
2. Narrative categories: narrator, point of view, space and time, narrative comprehension.
3. Background: culture and film industry, audiences, genres and spectacles.
4. Problems and solutions: analysis of adaptations of classic novels, comics and graphic novels, short fiction, non-fiction, bestsellers, etc.

Sessions 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 (Dr. María Elena Rodríguez Martín):

1. Narrative discourse: the universality of storytelling; the origins of film; literary and film narratives; written and audiovisual narratives; narrative and multimodality; transmedia narratives. Analysis of film scenes: E.T. The Extra-Terrestrial (Dir. Steven Spielberg, 1982) and A.I. Artificial Intelligence (Dir. Steven Spielberg, 2001), The Lord of The Rings: The Fellowship of the Ring (Dir. Peter Jackson, 2001), Sleepy Hollow (Dir. Tim Burton, 1999), Memento (Dir. Christopher Nolan, 2000), Bridget Jones's Diary (Dir. Sharon

- Maguire, 2001), Clueless (Dir. Amy Heckerling, 1995).
2. Film adaptation: origins and reasons for adaptations; theories of adaptation. Analysis of film scenes: Atonement (Dir. Joe Wright, 2007).
 3. Adapting classics: adaptations of Jane Austen's Life and Works. Analysis of the film Mansfield Park (Dir. Patricia Rozema, 1999).
 4. Analysing narrative discourse in novel and film. Analysis of the film The Hours (Dir. Stephen Daldry, 2002).

Sessions 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13 (Dr. Miguel Ángel Martínez-Cabeza):

1. Adaptation and film genres: Adaptation (Dir. Spike Jonze, 2002) Paris When it Sizzles (Dir. Richard Quine, 1964)
2. Adapting comics. Films: American Splendor (Dir. Robert Pulcini/Shari Springer Berman, 2003), A History of Violence (Dir. David Cronenberg, 2005), Sin City (Dir. Robert Rodriguez/Frank Miller, 2005).
3. Adapting shorter fiction. Films: Memento (Dir. Christopher Nolan, 2000), Million $$$ Baby (Dir. Clint Eastwood, 2004), Secret Window (Dir. David Koepp, 2004).
4. Adapting non-fiction. Films: Invictus (Dir. Clint Eastwood, 2009), District 9 (Dir. Neill Blomkamp, 2009).
5. Adapting best-selling fiction. Films: Inferno (Dir. Ron Howard, 2016), The Girl on the Train (Dir. Tate Taylor, 2016).
6. Adapting as (de)constructing. TV series: Sleepy Hollow (Season 1), Sherlock (The Abominable Bride, special 2016), Once upon a Time (Season 7).

It is recommended that students watch the films before the sessions since only selected clippings will be shown during the sessions.
